

Coop FIS Cross-Country World Cup / Viessmann FIS Nordic Combined World Cup 2023/2024 FIS Season Accreditation - Online Application

The FIS Season Accreditation is intended for people who need regular access to the Coop FIS Cross-Country World Cup or Viessmann FIS Nordic Combined World Cup for professional reasons.

For general questions concerning the FIS Season Accreditation, please contact Madeline Nappey, FIS Nordic Assistant, nappey@fisski.com

- Eligibility for a FIS Season Accreditation and the respective access areas can be found here.
- The accreditation if granted is subject to all general terms and conditions for the FIS Season Accreditation.
- The holder of a FIS Season Accreditation benefits, on a subsidiary basis, from a collective accident insurance issued by Allianz Suisse.

ONLINE APPLICATION ► to be processed via the FIS member section

If you or your organisation has already received login information for the past season, the same details are valid and you can proceed with the registration by entering your information in the member section.

Provided you would like to change your contact person or are new to the process, please assign a staff member to handle all accreditation requests and communication of mandatory information to all card holders. Send your request to nappey@fisski.com.

> Member National Ski Association (NSA)

An NSA can submit requests for FIS Season Accreditation in the categories of: NSA Council Member, NSA Professional, NSA Team Coach/Trainer, NSA Team Doctor, NSA Team Physio, NSA Team Service Staff or NSA Team Press Attaché.

FIS Committee Members and Technical Delegates: please register with your NSA.

> FIS World Cup Sponsor/Partner, FIS World Cup Service Provider and SRS and Industry companies

Please note the information under ONLINE APPLICATION.

> FIS Media Accreditation

FIS is not issuing any FIS seasonal accreditation for the media during the upcoming season. Please follow the instructions under Specific Event Accreditation.

Specific Event Accreditations

To request accreditation for the FIS World Cup events, please contact the respective Local Organising Committee. To access their contact information, please find the discipline related information by clicking on <http://data.fis-ski.com>