- Jan Zabystran (CZE/Kaestle) claimed the first World Cup win for Czech men in any discipline. This was only the third podium for the Czech men's team, with the two other top-3 finishes belonging to Ondrej Bank, both in combined events.
- It's the second time a nation has recorded its first victory on the men's Alpine skiing World Cup tour this season. Lucas Pinheiro Braathen (BRA/Atomic) did it earlier this year for Brazil in the Levi Slalom.
- Marco Odermatt's (SUI/Stöckli) 2nd place finish in Val Gardena allowed him to claim outright 3rd place on the men's all-time list with 27 World Cup Super G podiums. He is chasing Hermann Maier (AUT, 38) and Aksel Lund Svindal (NOR, 30) in the top two positions on this list.
- Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) can join Aksel Lund Svindal (NOR) in second place on the men's all-time World Cup Super G winners list with a victory. Odermatt has 16 Super G World Cup wins, one behind Svindal and eight behind Hermann Maier (AUT), who leads the field with 24 wins.
- Giovanni Franzoni (ITA/Rossignol) claimed his first career Alpine World Cup podium in Val Gardena. His previous personal best finish was 4th place in Beaver Creek Super G in December 2024.
- Christof Innerhofer (ITA/Rossignol) was 6th in Val Gardena, his best finish in any World Cup race since he came 5th in the Garmisch-Partenkirchen Super G in February 2021.
- Only four athletes have finished inside the top 10 of every Super G race of the 2025/26 World Cup season: Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli), Vincent Kriechmayr (AUT/Head), Raphael Haaser (AUT/Atomic) and Stefan Rogentin (SUI/Fischer).

- Two French athletes featured in the top 5 in the Val Gardena Super G: Nils Allegre (FRA/Salomon, 4th) and Matthieu Bailet (FRA/Head, 5th). The previous time two Frenchmen were in the top 5 of a World Cup Super G race was in Beaver Creek in December 2017, when Adrien Theaux (FRA/Salomon) and Alexis Pinturault (FRA/Head) also finished 4th and 5th, respectively.
- Livigno will host a stage of the Alpine Skiing World Cup for the first time in its history. The Tagliede – Li Zeta slope, starting at 2,375 meters, will lead the athletes to the town center finish line at 1,850 meters.
- Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) can extend his record streak of men's top-10 World Cup Super G finishes. The Swiss skier has finished inside the top 10 in his last 27 World Cup Super G races dating back to the race in Courchevel/Meribel in March 2022. In that time he has claimed 12 wins and 20 podium finishes.
- A win in Livigno would see Vincent Kriechmayr (AUT/Head) claim outright third place on the list of Austrian World Cup Super G winners, men or women. He is currently equal third with Michaela Dorfmeister (AUT) on 10 wins. Hermann Maier (AUT) heads the list with 24 Super G World Cup wins, with Renate Goetschl (AUT) in second place with 17.
- Christof Innerhofer (ITA/Rossignol) will make his 112th World Cup Super G start to set a record for men or women. He is currently equal with Lara Gut-Behrami (SUI/Head) on 111.
- Christof Innerhofer (ITA/Rossignol) has made 344 World Cup starts in all disciplines since his debut in 2006/07. Federica Brignone (ITA/Rossignol, 359) and Peter Fill (ITA, 355) are the only two Italians with more World Cup starts.
- The last time an Italian athlete won a World Cup Super G race in Italy was at Val Gardena in December 2024, when Mattia Casse (ITA/Rossignol) won his first ever World Cup race.
- There have been eight Super G races on Italian slopes in the course of the last four World Cup seasons. Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) has won half of them, claiming a podium spot seven times. The only time Odermatt failed to step on the podium was last season's Bormio Super G, where he finished 5th.
