

Audi FIS Alpine Ski World Cup 2025/26 – Women’s Slalom Flachau stat sheet

Previous SL race (Kranjska Gora) stats

- Camille Rast (SUI/Head) ended Mikaela Shiffrin’s (USA/Atomic) five-race Slalom win streak with victory in Kranjska Gora by 0.14s ahead of Shiffrin, with Wendy Holdener (SUI/Head) in third. This was the second-smallest winning margin of the six women’s SL races this season - only Shiffrin’s 0.09s win ahead of Rast in Semmering was smaller.
- Camille Rast (SUI/Head) has made six podiums this season (4 SL, 2 GS), the same total as Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) (6 SL), but Shiffrin has five wins to Rast’s two. After making her World Cup debut in 2016/17, Rast required 3007 days to reach four World Cup podiums (3 SL, 1 GS). In contrast, Rast needed just 43 days this season to make her next six podiums (4 SL, 2 GS). Her win in Kranjska Gora made her the 20th Swiss woman to reach 10 World Cup podiums.
- Mikaela Shiffrin’s (USA/Atomic) 2nd in Kranjska Gora was her 95th Slalom podium. With four SL races left this season Shiffrin could reach 99 if she gets on the podium in all four, but will have to wait until next season for a chance to become the first women’s or men’s skier to reach 100 podiums in a single discipline.
- Wendy Holdener’s (SUI/Head) 3rd in Kranjska Gora ended a streak of nine Slalom races without a podium. Holdener now has 39 SL podiums, which is sixth-highest among women and equal-11th among women’s and men’s skiers alongside Ivica Kostelic (CRO).
- Lara Della Mea’s (ITA/Fischer) 6th in Kranjska Gora was her best finish in 60 Slalom and 85 World Cup starts, while Dzenifera Germane’s (LAT/Head) 7th was her best finish in 15 World Cup starts.

Flachau stats

- Flachau has hosted 18 women’s World Cup Slalom races. Janica Kostelic (CRO) won the first in 2000/01 by 1.56s, which remains the biggest SL winning margin in Flachau to date. Kostelic won again in 2001/02, three weeks after winning Olympic SL gold in Salt Lake City.
- Camille Rast (SUI/Head) won the last women’s Slalom race in Flachau in 2024/25 by 0.16s ahead of Wendy Holdener (SUI/Head), with Sara Hector (SWE/Head) in third. This was the third-smallest winning margin of the 18 women’s SL races held in Flachau. The smallest is 0.10s, achieved by Petra Vlhova (SVK) ahead of Anna Swenn Larsson (SWE/Head) in 2019/20.
- Anna Swenn Larsson (SWE/Head), Wendy Holdener (SUI/Head) and Lena Duerr (GER/Head) have each contested 14 women’s Slalom races in Flachau. Duerr is the only one to have appeared in all 14 races in Flachau since 2011/12, while Larsson and Holdener first raced in the 2010/11 edition but missed one each in later seasons. Lindsey Vonn (USA/Head) is the only active skier to have taken part in the third women’s SL race held in Flachau back in 2009/10.
- Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) recorded a DNF in her first race at Flachau in 2011/12, but since then has been on the podium in each of the ten subsequent races, five of which she won.
- Of the nine women to have won a Slalom race in Flachau, three are active skiers - Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) (five wins), Petra Vlhova (SVK/Rossignol) (three wins) and Camille Rast (SUI/Head) (one win).

- Mikaela Shiffrin's (USA/Atomic) five wins came in 2012/13, 2013/14, 2017/18, 2020/21 and 2023/24. Petra Vlhova's (SVK/Rossignol) three wins came in 2018/19, 2019/20 and 2022/23. Four non-active women's skiers have two SL wins in Flachau, while Camille Rast (SUI/Head) is the only active skier among three women with one win each.
- Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) is the youngest women's Slalom winner in Flachau, having made her third SL win there in 2012/13 at age 17 years and 308 days. Veronika Velez Zuzulova (SVK) is the oldest, having won in 2015/16 at age 31 years and 184 days. Skiers who could surpass Zuzulova's record with a win in Flachau include Paula Moltzan (USA/Rossignol), Wendy Holdener (SUI/Head), Sara Hector (SWE/Head), Anna Swenn Larsson (SWE/Head), Lena Duerr (GER/Head) among others.
- Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) has 580 SL points coming into Flachau - a 218-point lead ahead of Camille Rast (SUI/Head) on 362. If Shiffrin wins in Flachau she will move to 680 points, in which case Rast must score at least 18 points (14th place minimum) in Flachau to maintain a possibility of catching Shiffrin in the final three SL races of the season.
- If Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) wins she will become the first women's or men's skier to reach 70 World Cup wins in a single discipline. Shiffrin's current Slalom victory count (69) is enough to earn her fourth place on the all-time women's and men's win list for all disciplines.
- If Wendy Holdener (SUI/Head) wins, she will become the oldest skier representing Switzerland to win a women's World Cup Slalom race at age 32 (Vreni Schneider holds the current record of age 30). If Holdener makes the podium, she will become the sixth woman (and third from Switzerland) to reach 40 SL podiums. A podium will also see Holdener break into the top 10 for women's and men's SL podiums at equal-10th alongside Mario Matt (AUT).
- Camille Rast (SUI/Head) has three Slalom wins while Wendy Holdener (SUI/Head) has two. A win for Holdener will see her match Rast, which is fifth-best among Swiss women. A win for Rast would see her join Corinne Schmidhauser (SUI) on four, which is equal-fourth among Swiss women behind Vreni Schneider (34), Erika Hess (21) and Lise-Marie Morerod (10).
- Camille Rast's (SUI/Head) win in Kranjska Gora means Switzerland is now equal-fourth with Sweden on 108 women's and men's Slalom wins, behind Austria (222), France (134) and USA (127). The next Swiss or Swedish win will see that nation move into fourth outright.
- If Anna Swenn Larsson (SWE/Head) makes the podium she will become the 29th woman to make 15 SL podiums.
- Katharina Liensberger (AUT) and Lena Duerr (GER/Head) are both on 17 Slalom podiums alongside Annemarie Moser-Proell (AUT), Tina Maze (SLO) and Sarka Strachova (CZE), which is equal-21st best for women, behind Nicole Hosp (AUT) who rounds out the Top 20 outright on 19. A podium for Duerr will see her move to 18 and outright 21st, while Liensberger is out for the season due to injury.
- Austria has 89 women's Slalom wins. A win for an Austrian skier would see Austria become the second nation after the USA to reach 90 women's SL wins.
- While Austria leads comfortably for most women's Slalom podiums (286), the USA (205) and Switzerland (204) are close enough that either nation could lead or be equal after Flachau.

- Germany is on 29 women's and men's SL wins. A win for Emma Aicher (GER/Head) or Lena Duerr (GER/Head) will see Germany become the 10th nation to achieve 30 SL wins. If Aicher wins, she will become the third German woman (along with Hilde Gerg and Maria Hoefl-Riesch) to have won World Cup races in Downhill, Super G and SL.
- Croatia has 98 women's Slalom top 10 finishes. If Zrinka Ljutic (CRO/Atomic) and Leona Popovic (CRO/Voelkl) both finish in the top 10, Croatia will become the 13th nation to reach 100. Croatia has 23 women's SL wins (three for Ljutic, 20 for Janica Kostelic), which is seventh highest, but Croatia is the only top 10 nation for women's SL wins that is yet to reach 100 top 10 women's SL finishes.
- Sara Hector (SWE/Head) will make her 100th Slalom start in Flachau, while Katharina Truppe (AUT/Voelkl) will make her 99th, and Aline Danoth (SUI/Head) her 50th.
- Across all disciplines, Asa Ando (JPN/Atomic) will make her 100th World Cup start in Flachau, while AJ Hurt (USA/Head) will make her 90th and Doriane Escane (FRA/Head) her 80th.
