

RULES FOR THE ORGANISATION OF FIS ALPINE JUNIOR WORLD SKI CHAMPIONSHIPS

Edition July 2023

THE ORGANISATION OF FIS ALPINE JUNIOR WORLD SKI CHAMPIONSHIPS

1. Year and dates

- 1.1 The FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships (WJC) shall be organised every year.
- 1.2 The FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships should take place outside Europe at least once every 3 years.
- 1.3 The competitions are open to all National Ski Associations affiliated to the FIS.
- 1.4 The competitions may not be organised at the same time as the Olympic Winter Games or the FIS Alpine World Ski Championships and must be organised before the FIS World Cup Finals if possible. The exact date of the event will be proposed in consultation with the Sub Committee for Intercontinental Cups and approved by the FIS Council two years in advance.

2. Application for the organisation of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships

- 2.1 A National Ski Association applying to organise the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships must submit a written application to the FIS, no later than January 1st, three years before the proposed event. The application must include the name of the venue organising site and the homologation numbers of the courses.
 - 2.1.1 The candidacy should contain:
 - a confirmation that the Organiser has carried out a Downhill and a technical event at FIS Continental Cup level in the last two years
 - weather and snow statistics for the past ten years.
- 2.2 If the National Ski Association submitting the application is not undertaking the technical organisation itself, the application must indicate which club or clubs are responsible for the organisation.
- 2.3 Furthermore, the application must include the information indicated in art. 5.2 of the FIS Rules for the Organisation of FIS Alpine World Ski Championships.
- 2.4 An inspection of the proposed site including verification of the check list will be carried out by the representative(s) of the Alpine Committee (FIS EC Coordinators) before the appointment of the organisers by the FIS Council.

3. Appointment of the organisers

- 3.1 The FIS Council will assign the organisation of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships to a National Ski Association affiliated to FIS. This assignment will take place at least 2 years before the appointed time.
- 3.2 The National Ski Association in question has the sole responsibility for the organisation of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships.

4. Programme

- 4.1 The FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships should be organised within a period of ten days.
- 4.2 The competition programme must include Downhill, Slalom, Giant Slalom, Super-G, Team Combined and Mixed Team Parallel. There must be separate competitions for women and men.
- 4.3 The Organising Committee shall collaborate with FIS in preparing the competition programme and will submit it to FIS no later than July 1st of the preceding year.
- 4.4 If necessary, the programme may be modified on site by the FIS Emergency Committee.
- 4.5 A test competition consisting of a Downhill and a Super-G and a technical event must be organised at the latest one year before the Championships.
- 4.6 In the event that there are more than 140 entered competitors for the Giant Slalom and Slalom, a qualification race may be organised as part of these races.

5. Eligibility for participation

- 5.1 Eligible for participation are all National Ski Associations affiliated to FIS.
- 5.2 To be eligible for participation in FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships, the competitors must be citizens of the country whose National Ski Association has issued their licenses and prove this with a valid passport, see ICR art. 203.
- 5.3 Upon application by the National Ski Association the FIS Council may make exceptions to this rule.
- 5.4 To be eligible for participation in Slalom and Giant Slalom the competitor must have FIS points in at least one event.
For participation in Super-G (or Team Combined with Super-G) the competitor must have FIS points in Downhill, Super-G, Alpine Combined or Giant Slalom.
For participation in Downhill (or Team Combined with Downhill) the competitor must have FIS points in Downhill or Super-G.
If competitors do not yet appear on the valid FIS points list, they may only participate on the condition that an official result list containing their previous results is presented.

6 Number of participants and officials

- 6.1 Each National Ski Association may participate with a total of 16 competitors, but no more than 10 of the same gender. A maximum of 4 women and 4 men may start per event. In Downhill a maximum number of 8 athletes (including ZK quota) per gender may take part in the official training.
- 6.1.1 Additional start places for qualified competitors (ZK quota)
- The ZK quota is valid for these four events: DH, SG, SL and GS.
 - 2 ZK competitors may be entered in addition to the four competitors per nation.

- Qualification: Ranked on the valid FIS points list in two of these events (DH, GS, SL): Men: in the top 500, Women: in the top 400.
- ZK competitors participation will be confirmed one hour before the first competition draw, for DH latest one hour after the last training run.
- In case ZK competitors do not finish one of the events they keep the right to start within the original total quota of their country for the other events (this means that the national quota is not reduced due to a DNF of a ZK competitor).
- Teams cannot make any changes to the ZK competitors after the first race.

6.2 A maximum of 20 officials (e.g. 1 team captain, 11 trainers, 6 service staff, 1 doctor and 1 physiotherapist) may be entered per national team (men and women):

For a team up to:

- | | |
|---------------------------|--------------|
| - 3 competitors | 6 officials |
| - 4 competitors | 8 officials |
| - 5 competitors | 9 officials |
| - 6 competitors | 10 officials |
| - 7 competitors | 13 officials |
| - 8 competitors | 15 officials |
| - 9 competitors | 17 officials |
| - 10 competitors and more | 20 officials |

The official service personnel of the ski companies are not included in these quotas.

6.3 FIS Emergency Committee

During the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships a FIS Emergency Committee will be set up in conjunction with the Organising Committee to control the entries as well as other non-technical questions such as postponements, cancellations etc.

6.2.1 The FIS Emergency Committee consists of:

- the Technical Delegates of the FIS
- the FIS COC (EC) Coordinator (s)
- the Official Representative of the FIS Council
- the FIS Alpine Coordinator as the representative of the Alpine Committee
- the Chief of Race
- the Secretary General of the Organising Committee

7 Age limits, gender verification, anti-doping controls

7.1 Only one age group will be recognized per event. For U18 an additional results list will be published.

7.2 The maximum age for entry: see ICR 607.3 (U21 and U18).

7.3 If any question or protest arises as to the gender of the athlete, FIS shall assume responsibility for taking the necessary steps to determine the gender of the athlete (ICR art. 221.5).

7.4 Anti-doping control is compulsory.

7.5 The Organisers of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships are responsible for the arrangements for the controls and if requested the gender verification. The costs for these arrangements must be paid by the Organising Committee.

7.6 The Organiser is responsible for facilitating the doping controls for In-Competition at selected Medal events and Out-of-Competition Testing during the FIS Junior World Ski Championships (as defined in the FIS Test Distribution Plan and FIS Instructions for In-Competition Testing at WJC).

7.7 FIS will appoint (as is does at the FIS World Cup events) a service provider (National Anti-Doping Agency to carry out the doping controls after having consulted with the LOC. Such service agency will meet the World Anti-Doping Code, World Anti-Doping Agency's International Standards' and FIS Anti-Doping Rules' requirements.

(FIS ADR: <https://www.fis-ski.com/en/inside-fis/governance/fis-anti-doping>)

The Organiser, after consultation with the FIS and the service provider, shall provide all facilities for doping controls (such as the doping control station incl office space, transportation, accommodation, accreditation, full board, etc) and all other obligations (e.g. Chaperones). Additional accommodation for the doping control personnel (up to 4 rooms) carrying out Out-of-Competition Testing prior to the event (e.g. 4 days prior to Opening Ceremony) shall be provided by the LOC, if applicable (as per FIS Test Distribution Plan).

7.8 Clean Sport Awareness & Education (Clean Sport Education)

The World Anti-Doping Code requires mandatory educational efforts and Awareness and Educational Activities at WSC events are scheduled in the FIS Educational Plan.

A cooperation in this regard can be creative and involves as a minimum the following:

- LOC to spread the Clean Sport message within their communication plans
- LOC to make the Clean Sport message visual (FIS can provide the visual items for the team areas, venues and doping control station)
- LOC to provide a space for educational activities (and to partner with FIS or the National Anti-Doping Agency) e.g. Outreach space
- LOC to include the Integrity Hotline Reporting mechanism into the official Team Information

FIS expresses its willingness to work with and advise the LOC towards more best practice activities.

7.9 Safeguarding; Safe Sport

The LOC shall ensure the application of the FIS Snow Safe policy (available on the FIS website or through the FIS Office), as well as the Major event guidelines for the FIS Snow Safe Policy Implementation.

The LOC is responsible that the FIS Integrity Hotline (or a national LOC Hotline) is being promoted at least within the official Team Information (and ideally in more spaces around the event).

FIS guarantees cooperation and advises on the implementation.

8 Supervision by FIS

8.1 The FIS must carry out an inspection of the competition courses two years before the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships are to be held and must clarify the rules of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships with the Organising Committee.

8.2 The FIS points are calculated as in Continental Cup

8.3 The FIS Council appoints an official FIS representative.

8.4 The FIS Council appoints two FIS Technical Delegates on the proposal of the Alpine Committee.

9 Invitations and entries

9.1 The invitation for participation in the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships shall be issued by the organising National Ski Association (or their Organising Committee) at the latest by November 1st of the year preceding the event. The invitation must be published in English. The invitation must contain the FIS Rules for the Organisation of FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships.

9.2 The national entry, containing the preliminary number of team members (women and men), including competitors and officials, must be in possession of the Organising Committee no later than November 30th of the year preceding the event.

9.3 The FIS online registration system must be used to send the entries. The official team entry must contain the number of competitors (incl. names and dates of birth) as well as the number of officials and service staff (incl. names, if possible). This entry must be sent to Organising Committee no later than 7 days before the first team captains meeting. The official team entry must consist of the exact date of arrival and departure.

The Organisers must be informed at least 7 days before the first team captains meeting about eventual changes to the arrival date and the originally registered size of team, as well as any withdrawals from the event. If this is not done, the Organising Committee will invoice the costs incurred for cancelled accommodation (per art. 10) to the National Association concerned.

Exceptions to this rule are:

1) Force majeure (illness, death, etc.)

Should the exceptional case occur, the Organising Committee may accept such entries in agreement with the FIS directing staff.

Changes to the entry lists (exchange of names in the entry lists) are forbidden, unless there are urgent reasons (force majeure). In agreement with the FIS directing staff at the competition site, the Organising Committee makes the decision.

On request of the National Ski Association the FIS directing staff can in exceptional cases allow the late arrival and competition participation of a competitor not yet present at the competition site. The Organising Committee must accept such competitors.

Should a National Ski Association enter more officials than permitted by the rules, the Organising Committee, in agreement with the National Ski Association concerned, must make the necessary corrections on the entry list. The Organising Committee does not assume any responsibility, such as accommodation or meals, for officials who are thus omitted from the entry lists.

- 9.4 The final entry for each race, with the names taken from each nation's official entry must be submitted as follows:
- Downhill: At latest one hour after the end of the last training run
 - Slalom, Giant Slalom, Team Combined, Mixed Team Parallel and Super-G: this will be determined by the Jury, in principle three hours before the draw

10 Payment of expenses and travel costs

- 10.1 Each National Ski Association must pay to the Organising Committee for all the competitors and officials included in the last official entry (art. 9.3) the maximum price of CHF 90.- (all taxes included) per person per day. With this price the Organising Committee will provide full board (accommodation, breakfast, lunch and dinner, as well as passes for ski-lifts or mountain railways). This price is valid for competitors and officials in agreement with the maximum numbers indicated by art. 6.2 of these rules (max. competitors and officials). 50% of this price must be paid per participant per day to the Organising Committee by the National Ski Associations making the entries on arrival as a pre-payment and the remainder is to be paid before departure.
For food and lodging, Continental Cup rules are valid (see Book of Duties).
- 10.2 Teams may not arrive more than one day before the first official training. The rules for the payment of expenses for accommodation and meals, as well as for lift and mountain railways apply from the eve of the first official training day until the morning of the day after the last race. The hotel management cannot insist that the teams leave the rooms on the last competition day.
- 10.3 No more than 2 competitors can be accommodated in one room. Allocation of single rooms per team must be made according to the following table:
1 to 4 competitors = 1 single
5 to 10 competitors = 2 single rooms more than 11 competitors = 3 single rooms
- 10.4 Only with the full agreement of a team, can it be accommodated in 2 or more hotels.
- 10.5 The National Ski Associations are responsible for the return travel costs to the competition venue of competitors and officials.
- 10.6 The price of CHF 90.- (tourist taxes included) for full board must also be offered for service people who are accredited by FIS and listed on the official entry form by the corresponding team captain and whose accommodation is arranged by the Organising Committee.

11 Finances

- 11.1 The planning and carrying out of the competitions are done at the cost and risk of the Organising Committee and in agreement with the instructions and decisions of the National Ski Association.
- 11.2 The Organising Committee is responsible for the following special and additional tasks:
Payment of the costs of travel and accommodation to and at the competition venue for:
 - the official representative of the FIS Council,

- 2 (two) FIS Technical Delegates,
- the Medical Supervisor, and free accommodation for:

- the official representative of the Youth and Children Sub-Committee,
- 2 (two) FIS COC (EC) Coordinator(s),
- the Equipment Control responsible,
- the FIS Technical Assistant,
- the FIS Technical Advisor,
- the FIS Communication Assistant.
- the Swiss Timing Group (6 persons)
- the Doping Control personnel (4 persons)

Additionally the Organising Committee has to provide free of cost 2 (two) double rooms with full board accommodation for the next WJC Organiser and 1 (one) double room with full board accommodation for the former WJC Organiser.

12 Prizes / Ceremonies

- 12.1 The winner, the second and the third placed in each event (including the Mixed Team Parallel) receive the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships' Medal in gold, silver and bronze.
- 12.2 All participants receive the FIS diploma.
- 12.3 The medals are provided and paid for by the FIS. A template to print the FIS diplomas will be also provided by FIS.
- 12.4 The first 6 in each event receive a prize and for the Team Combined and Mixed Team Parallel only the first three.
- 12.5 An additional results list will be published for the U18 category. The prizes for the U18 category will be supplied, paid and provided by the Organising Committee. Team Combined and Mixed Team Parallel are not included.
- 12.6 The winners of each event have the right to start in the corresponding event of the World Cup final of the same season assuming this is possible. Team Combined and Mixed Team Parallel are not included.
- 12.7 Winners' Award Ceremonies shall be held in a solemn atmosphere. Design and proceedings shall comply, to a great extent, with the versions described in the attachment: see Annexe 1.
- 12.8 Similar to the winners' Award Ceremony, the Opening Ceremony shall also comply with the respective FIS regulations in attachment: see Annexe 1.

13 Television / Marketing / FIS Corporate Identity

- 13.1 The negotiations and decisions concerning possible television transmission of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships shall be made in accordance to the FIS Rules for television (ICR art. 208).
- 13.2 The FIS Advertising Rules are the basis for marketing by Organising Committees, respectively National Ski Associations.
- 13.3 FIS Corporate Identity must be observed. All relating details are listed in the enclosure.

14 General report

- 14.1 At the conclusion of the Championships, and no later than May 1st of the actual competition year, the organising National Association shall compile a report about the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships and send it to FIS.
- 14.2 The FIS Technical Delegates are required to submit a written report to FIS no later than May 1st of the competition year.

15 Technical rules

- 15.1 All further technical rules concerning the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships can be found in the International Competition Rules (ICR).
- 15.2 For the starting order, the choice of starting numbers and the public draw, the COC rules are valid (see Book of Duties).
- 15.3 A professional timing/data team should be nominated by the Organiser if this is not foreseen and regulated by FIS specific agreements. The Live Timing transmission on FIS Official website is mandatory. In Downhill two intermediate times must be provided (in Super G only one is mandatory).
- 15.4 A technical advisor will be nominated by FIS.
- 15.5 An equipment control must take place at the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships.

16 Substitution of a competition

16.1 Cancellation due to "force majeure"

If a FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships has to be cancelled due to "force majeure", a replacement championship may be organised in another location. Such a decision must be approved in cooperation with the FIS COC Coordinator.

In case of such replacement the COC rules are valid for payment of expenses (see Book of Duties).

16.2 Pre-event control of snow conditions on the race courses

The Organising Committee must constantly inform FIS on the snow conditions and preparations, especially during the last 3 weeks before the event. An expert, appointed by FIS, shall report to the office 15 days before the event. If the snow report is negative FIS will coordinate the work of an event preparation group, which is described in article 16.3.

16.3 Event Preparation Group

In case of difficult snow conditions 15 days before the event, an event preparation group will be appointed in order to take decisions on the possibility to hold the events as planned or to make any necessary changes.

The members of the event preparation group are:

- FIS COC (EC) Coordinators;
- 1 representative of the Organising Committee;
- 1 representative of the National Ski Association.

If necessary, FIS can appoint a Technical Advisor to be sent to the site in order to inform the event preparation group on the snow conditions, snow production / transportation progress and the course preparation.

Travel and accommodation costs will be paid by the OC. In addition the expert will receive a daily rate paid by the OC, according to ICR 602.5.

In the event that there is not enough snow on the competition course(s), the Organising Committee must cancel the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships. Cancellation deadline is 10 days prior to the first training run.

Officials and Ceremonies

1 Opening ceremony of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships

1.1 Official part

- Procession with background music: entry of all participating national delegations with athletes, headed by bearer of the national flag and nation's sign, followed by the officials from the organising National Ski Association and Organising Committee.
- Presentation of the national flag: some representatives of the Organising Committee carry a large flag. During the flag being raised, the National Anthem of the organising country is to be played.
- Presentation of the FIS flag: 4 to 6 athletes present from the previous FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships organisers carry a large flag with the FIS emblem. At the same time, a further representative carries a hand-held flag with the FIS logo.
- Handover of the flag: the previous FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships organiser hands over the FIS hand-held flag to the FIS President (or representative). The FIS President (or representative) hands it over to the current FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships Organising Committee. Parallel to this, the representatives of the previous FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships organiser hand over the large FIS flag to the representatives of the actual FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships organiser.
- Hoisting the FIS flag with the FIS fanfare (long version).
- Welcome speech by maximum of two official representatives of the organising nation.
- Opening speech by the FIS President or one of the Vice-Presidents of the FIS to be named, with the declaration that the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships are open.

1.2 Closing part

After the official FIS opening programme, the respective Organising Committee has the option to present other performances, which correspond to the motto of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships, additionally present the culture and traditions of the organising nation.

2 Programme at sports events

2.1 Opening

- Each FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships competition shall be opened by a short, solemn ceremony. The FIS fanfare and the official announcement with the full name of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships and the following competition must be presented by the speaker and appear on the video wall.
- Further possible elements might be:
presentation of flags of participating nations by children,
national anthem of the organising nation,
cultural animation programme.

2.2 Winner Presentation

- Each FIS WJC event shall be concluded by an official winner presentation.
- For this purpose an attractive winner podium with corresponding infrastructure (backdrop and carpet) shall be set up in the finish area. The design of the infrastructure should be developed in conjunction with FIS.
- It is necessary to have enough presentation space, direct access for the successful athletes, space enough for photographers and broadcasters and space for unilateral interviews in the surrounding area.
- FIS, in consultation with the Organising Committee, can appoint persons who shall present flowers.
- Due to the live TV coverage the presentation should take place immediately after the official confirmation of the competition results by the jury.
- Order of the presentation:
 - Formation of the top 3 athletes, honorary guests and hostesses on the carpet either side of the podium.
 - Opening of the official winner presentation with the FIS fanfare.
 - Announcement of the winner presentation by the speaker, who names the full name of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships and the completed competition.
 - Announcement of the ranked athletes by forename/ last name/ nation in the order from the 3rd place down to 1st place with suspense-creating music. Announcement of the honorary guests and honouring of the athletes with the presentation of flowers/presents by the honorary guests in order of the 3rd to the 1st place. Solemn background music
 - In honour of the successful athletes, the national flags are hoisted and in honour of the winner, the national anthem should be played.
 - Announcement of the closing of the winner's presentation. Honorary guests depart accompanied by the hostesses. Athletes remain for a photo session with ski equipment.
- The Organising Committee must take care that the regulations regarding carrying and holding of competition equipment, are respected by the winning athletes during the ceremony.

3 Winner award ceremony of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships

3.1 Infrastructure and logistics

- Podium: an attractive large podium (minimum 5x10m) must be prepared by the Organising Committee. Each podium must have sufficient space for up to four athletes in the case of a team competition. The height of the individual podium places is terraced from the top (1st place) down to 6th place. The covering of the podium ground should emphasize the dignified character of the place (e.g. red carpet). A table for the preparation of the medals and gifts of honour shall be provided next to the podium. For the presentation of the medals, some presentation trays, or cushions must be available.
- Advertising: the creation and design of the podium and the back-wall must be coordinated in detail with the FIS and the marketing rights holder.
- Flags/hymns: FIS flag and FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships flag shall each be hoisted on a big flagpole near the podium. Depending on space available further four flagpoles shall be provided to hoist the flags of the successful competitor nations at the ceremony. These flagpoles should be placed near the podium within view of the winning athletes. Before the ceremony, the Organising Committee shall verify the correctness of flags and anthems.

- Meeting point: a heated meeting room shall be provided for all persons involved (athletes, honorary guests, participants). This place can also be the starting point for the procession of the persons involved.

The Organising Committee shall arrange for transportation of athletes, to and from this meeting point.

- Honorary guests who will hand over the FIS WJC medals are exclusively appointed by FIS, while the Organising Committee is responsible for honorary persons who will hand over the gifts of honour. Honorary guests can only be included if they are at the meeting point in time.

No presents of sponsors may be given to athletes at the official awards ceremony.

3.2 Pre-programme to the ceremony

The Organising Committee can organise a pre-programme to the ceremony but FIS must give its agreement beforehand.

3.3 Official ceremony

- Announcement of the award ceremony by the speaker with the full name of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships, the name of the concluded competition and the FIS fanfare (short version).
- Entry of the honorary guests and athletes with background music. If possible they should be guided by hostesses. Depending on the formation and the planned order, the hostesses can lead the entry with the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships medals.
- Welcome and introduction of the personalities, who will honour the winners: the medals are presented by the President of FIS [first name], [last name] accompanied by a Vice President of FIS or a FIS Council Member [first name], [last name], [nation]. The gifts of honour will be handed over by [first name], [last name], [function].
- The athletes' order of entry/march onto the stage: 6th place, 5th place, 4th place, 3rd place, 1st place, 2nd place. In case of a Team Event only the top 3 places are awarded medals.
- Positioning on the stage: first, the athletes shall stand behind the podium. Honorary guests stand on one side, hostesses on the other side of the podium (near the table with FIS medals and gifts of honour).
- Proclamation of the winner in the language of the organising nation, in English and if possible in the language of the winners. The ranking must be announced from 6th to 1st place.

Announcement:

- >Sixth place [first name], [last name], [nation]
(the sixth placed steps onto the podium)
- >Fifth place [first name], [last name], [nation]
(the fifth placed steps onto the podium)
- >Fourth place [first name], [last name], [nation]

(the second placed steps onto the podium)

- >FIS gold medal and FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Champion [year] [first name], [last name], [nation]
(the winner steps onto the podium)
- After all the athletes are announced and standing on the podium, presentation of the medals begins.

Announcement:

- [first name], [last name], [function], will now present the medals to the successful athletes together with [first name], [last name], [function]
- The medal presenter goes (seen from the front-side) from the left side of the podium to the winner and the hostess comes from the right side carrying the FIS medal on a presentation tray/ cushion.
- The medal presenter first congratulates the 4th to 6th placed athletes with a handshake in the order 6th, 5th, 4th. He then takes the medal from the cushion and hangs it over the neck of the 3rd placed athlete. He congratulates the athlete with a handshake. The same procedure follows directly afterwards for the 2nd and 1st placed athletes
- Afterwards the honorary guests of the Organising Committee hand over gifts of honour to the 6th to 1st placed athletes.
- Solemn music during honouring of the athletes.

Announcement:

In honour of the successful athletes, the national flags are hoisted and in honour of the winner, the national anthem is played.

- Playing of the national anthem of the country of the winner.
During the playing of the national anthem of the country of the winner the three national flags shall be hoisted. In case of a tie, for example for third place, all four national flags of the athletes on the podium (1st-3rd) shall be hoisted.

Announcement:

Closing of the official ceremony:

Departure of all persons announced by the speaker (honorary guests, hostesses, 4th, 5th, 6th placed athletes). Athletes 1st, 2nd, and 3rd remain on the podium for official photographs.

- Photo/TV & film action for press, film, radio and television with the successful athletes on the podium should be directed by the photo coordinator of the Organising Committee.

3.4 Closing part

Following the official part of the ceremony, the programme can be closed by the Organiser with individual performances such as fireworks, concert and show acts.

4 Closing ceremony of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships

The closing ceremony normally takes place directly at the end of the last competition with its respective award ceremony.

4.1 Official part

- Announcement of the Closing Ceremony by the speaker with the full name of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships and the FIS fanfare (short version).
- Entry of all participating national delegations with flag bearers and nation signs followed by the entry of the officials from the organising National Ski Association/Organising Committee accompanied by background music.
- Closing speech from the President of the Organising Committee or the representative of the country.
- Closing speech by the FIS President or one of the FIS representatives designated by the FIS Council.
- Lowering the flag of the organising country.
- Lowering the FIS flag by members of the Organising Committee.
- Presentation of the FIS flag, i.e. 4 to 6 athletes of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships organiser carry a large flag with the FIS emblem. At the same time, another representative carries a hand-held flag with the FIS logo.
- The athletes of the WJC Organising Committee hands over the large FIS flag to the athletes of the next FIS WJC Organising Committee. During the handover the long version of the FIS fanfare is played.
- Both Organising Committees march away with the large flag accompanied by music, followed by the national flag bearers.
- The subsequent organisers of the FIS Alpine Junior World Ski Championships can extend an invitation to the next WJC with the help of film material on a video wall and with a speech.
- The officials march out.

5 Planning / Preparation

Details of the venue, infrastructure and a presentation of a draft of the ceremony programme shall be made latest at the official FIS final inspection. Two months prior to the WJC a detailed programme (run-down order, text of speaker) for the different ceremonies shall be presented to the FIS for approval.

Annexe 2:

FIS Corporate Identity

1 Preamble

The rules for the use of the FIS logo and the FIS snowflake (medal) as stated in the FIS Corporate Identity manual must be respected.

The official title, the World Championships event logo and the wording FIS and/or FIS logo must be incorporated within the sports competitions, advertising elements, signage, TV graphics, published information material, print and electronic publications as well as print and TV promotional advertising.

2 Elements

2.1 FIS and the title of the event

Generally 'FIS' should always be used in connection with the expression 'World Championships', e.g.

- FIS World Ski Championships
- FIS Alpine World Ski Championships
- FIS Nordic World Ski Championships
- FIS Freestyle World Championships
- FIS Snowboard World Championships

2.2 The FIS logo incorporated in the Official World Championship Event Logo

Since these are the FIS World Championships, prominence for FIS and in consequence the integration of the word mark FIS and/or FIS logo in the World Championships event logo is obligatory.

In addition to the creation of the World Championships event logo it is of course possible to develop a complete 'World Championships Corporate Design'. The outline and concept put together are to be agreed between the Organising Committee of the World Championships and FIS.

3 At the Sports Competition

In conjunction with the 'Venue Décor' of the sports infrastructure and advertising elements in the field of play the FIS Logo and the official FIS World Championships event logo should always be used.

This is especially valid for the following areas advertising elements:

- Start installation
- Finish installation
- Intermediate installation
- Backdrop for the winner presentation
- Backdrop for the prize award ceremony
- Backdrop for the unilateral interviews
- Backdrop for the leading athlete (leader board)
- Start numbers/bibs

as well as venue design

- Sports infrastructure
- Information boards

4 Signage

The above elements (FIS World Championships logo; FIS logo) are also to be used to promote the FIS World Championships on the signs in the resort, in the region, at the World Championships airport, official FIS hotel, etc.

5 TV Graphics

The TV graphics are to be agreed between the host broadcaster and the data/timing partner on the one hand and the Organising Committee and the FIS on the other hand.

Both, the official FIS World Championships event logo as well as the official FIS logo, are to be considered.

This is valid especially for the following television on screen injections:

- TV opening credits for all live coverage (technical data, weather, etc.)
- TV closing credits for all live coverage
- TV opening credits for all recorded coverage
- TV closing credits for all recorded coverage
- TV start list
- TV standings
- TV result lists
- TV medal review
- TV introduction of the World Championships region
- TV identification

6 Advertising and Information Material

On all advertising and information material both the World Championships event logo and FIS logo are to be incorporated. This includes press releases as well as data/timing relevant information such as start list, result list, standings, analysis, etc.

7 Printed Advertising

On all printed and electronic advertising both the World Championships event logo and FIS logo are to be incorporated, this includes:

- FIS World Championship Programme
- FIS World Championship Media Guide
- FIS World Championship Team Guide
- FIS World Championship Spectators Guide
- FIS World Championship Volunteer Guide
- Posters
- Stickers
- Pins
- Accreditation
- World Championships diplomas of the Organising Committee
