

FACTS & FIGURES – Viessmann Nordic Combined World Cup – Lahti

MEN

- Vinzenz Geiger (GER) will be officially crowned as the new men's overall champion – his first Crystal Globe in his 10th season on the World Cup circuit.
- Geiger leads Jarl Magnus Riiber (NOR) by 19 points in the standings, but Riiber will not be competing in Lahti after ending his career in Oslo last Sunday.
- Geiger leads Johannes Lamparter (AUT), his closest challenger, by 287 points, with a maximum of 200 points remaining.
- Geiger's previous best overall finish was second in 2020-21, and he also finished third in 2019-20 and 2021-22. He was 11th in the standings last season.
- The 27-year-old has finished on the podium in 13 of the 17 competitions this season and taken his overall tally of individual World Cup wins from 10 to 17.
- Geiger has not finished off the podium since winning the Seefeld 'Triple' in early February. He has won four of the last six World Cup events.
- Ilkka Herola (FIN) won his first individual World Cup competition last Sunday in Oslo, in his 13th season on the circuit, helped by a hill-record jump of 146.0m.
- Johannes Lamparter (AUT) won a Gundersen on the HS130 hill in Lahti last season and holds a two-point lead over Julian Schmid (GER) in the battle for third place overall.
