Rules for the FIS Calendar

1. Registration Procedure

Calendar applications of the National Ski Associations (NSA) are entered by using the FIS Calendar Manager in the Member Section of the FIS website: www.fis-ski.com.

1.1 Registration Deadlines

Hemisphere	Deadline	Disciplines
Southern	May 31st	All Disciplines
Northern	May 31st	Summer competitions Ski Jumping and Nordic Combined, Rollerski competitions, Grass Skiing
Northern	August 31st	Cross-Country Skiing, Ski Jumping, Nordic Combined Alpine Skiing, Masters, Telemark, Speed Skiing, Para Alpine Skiing and Para Cross-Country
	October 30th	Freestyle Skiing, Snowboarding and Para Snowboard

1.2 Corrections

Corrections of Organisers Contact information may be done all season by the National Ski Associations using the calendar programme.

Any Place and Date changes that occur after original input must be communicated to the respective FIS discipline administrator by e-mail (not directly in the programme), who will make the necessary amendments to the FIS Database. These changes are then immediately visible on the official FIS website www.fis-ski.com.

2. Allocation of the Competitions

The respective FIS discipline assistant will register the following high level competitions, which are allocated by the FIS Council on proposal of the respective Committees or the IOC/IPC (OWG, PWG, YOG, WSC, WC, WJC, GP, EC) in the FIS on-line calendar, excluded the OC address and contact information. The NSA's are responsible for adding the complete OC address.

3. Homologations

Competitions that appear in the FIS Calendar may only take place on competition courses or jumping hills homologated by the FIS.

When applying for the inclusion of a competition, the homologation certificate number must be provided.

4. Publication of the FIS Calendar

The FIS calendar is published by FIS on the FIS website www.fis-ski.com. It will be updated to reflect cancellations, postponements and other changes continuously by FIS.

5. Postponements

In case of the postponement of a competition listed in the FIS Calendar, FIS has to be informed immediately and a new invitation must be sent to the National Ski Associations, otherwise the competition cannot be considered for FIS points.

6. Calendar Fees

A calendar fee, is set by the Congress, and is due for each year and for each event listed in the FIS Calendar. For additional events, a 50% surcharge will be made in addition to the regular calendar fee for applications submitted 30 days before the date of the competition.

The calendar fee for a competition that has to be rescheduled remains the responsibility for payment in full of the original organising National Ski Association.

- 6.1 At the beginning of the season, each NSA will receive an invoice for the equivalent amount to 70% of its total invoice from the previous season. This will be debited from its FIS account. At the end of the season, each NSA will receive a detailed invoice for all registered competitions and the balance of total competitions registered will subsequently be debited or credited to the NSA account at FIS.

Rules for the FIS Competitor Registrations

1. Registration Procedure

Competitors are registered by using the FOU (FIS Online Update) System on the FIS website via the Member Section www.fis-ski.com.
The Login and Password (same as in previous years) can be received from the respective discipline administrator.

With this system the status of the competitors can be changed, the biographies can be updated and new competitors can be added. The FIS Codes will be distributed automatically.

Registration of competitors can be made during the whole season. Please make sure to register them before the respective FIS points lists!

1.1 Status of the registrations

- Active (in the FIS points list). The status "active" remains also if the competitors do not participate in a FIS event. Status changes from "active" to "inactive" can only be done between 01.06. and 31.12. (for Grass Skiing between 01.01 and 30.06.)
- Only competitors with an active FIS Code are allowed to participate in FIS events. Entries are controlled by the Organiser and the FIS Technical Delegate.

Important:

Competitors who intent to apply for an injury status have to be registered as active.

2. Athletes Declaration and Insurance

Only competitors who have signed the athletes' declaration: as per ICR art. 203.3 and have appropriate insurance (ICR 212.4) may be registered by their National Ski Association. The responsible person of the National Ski Association, who sends the registration to FIS, confirms directly that the above mentioned requirements are fulfilled.
