

FIS Cross-Country World Cup 2026/2027 FIS Season Accreditation - Online Application

The FIS Season Accreditation is intended for people who need regular access to the FIS Cross-Country World Cup or for professional reasons.

- Eligibility for a FIS Season Accreditation and the respective access areas can be found here.
- The accreditation if granted is subject to all general terms and conditions for the FIS Season Accreditation.
- The holder of a FIS Season Accreditation benefits, on a subsidiary basis, from a collective accident insurance issued by Allianz Suisse.

For general questions concerning the FIS Season Accreditation, please contact Daniel Köhler, Daniel.Koehler@fis-ski.com

ONLINE APPLICATION ► to be processed via the FIS member section

If you or your organisation has already received login information for the past season, the same details are valid, and you can proceed with the registration by entering your information in the member section.

Provided that you would like to change your contact, person or are new to the process, please assign a staff member to handle all accreditation requests and communication of mandatory information to all card holders. Send your request to Daniel.Koehler@fis-ski.com.

> Member National Ski Association (NSA)

An NSA can submit requests for FIS Season Accreditation in the categories of: NSA Professional, NSA Coach, NSA Medical, NSA Technician or NSA Media.

FIS Committee Members and Technical Delegates: please register with your NSA.

> FIS World Cup Sponsor/Partner, FIS World Cup Service Provider and SRS and Industry companies

Please note the information under ONLINE APPLICATION.

Specific Event Accreditations

All stakeholders registered for a FIS World Cup through the FIS Entry System receive a local accreditation if they do not have a seasonal accreditation. If the seasonal accreditation is forgotten, please contact the accreditation office on site directly.
