

Audi FIS Alpine Skiing World Cup 2025/26

Men's Super G Kvitfjell Stat Sheet

Previous SG Race (Kitzbühel) and General Stats

- Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) won the sixth race of the Audi FIS World Cup Super G season in Kitzbühel (AUT) on 23 January - becoming the first athlete to win more than one SG race in the 2025/26 season. Franjo von Allmen (SUI/Head) finished second for his third successive World Cup Super G podium. Stefan Babinsky (AUT/Head) came third, his second career World Cup podium finish, and second in a row.
- This win also saw Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) join Aksel Lund Svindal (NOR) in second place on the men's all-time World Cup Super G winners list. He is now only seven victories behind Hermann Maier (AUT), who leads the men's field with 24 wins.
- Only two athletes have finished inside the top ten of every World Cup Super G race this season; Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) and Stefan Rogentin (SUI/Fischer).
- Franjo von Allmen (SUI/Head) has been on the podium in the last three World Cup Super G races. He has six podiums, including one win, in just 20 career WC Super G starts.
- Stefan Babinsky's (AUT/Head) first Alpine World Cup podium place in Wengen was followed by another one a week later in Kitzbühel. In his previous 93 Alpine World Cup starts, Babinsky's best result was three 4th-place finishes, all in Super G (Cortina d'Ampezzo and Aspen in 2022/23 and Copper Mountain in 2025/26).

Kvitfjell Super G Stats

- Three-time reigning World Cup Super G champion Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) claimed his fourth consecutive discipline Crystal Globe after the two races scheduled in Courchevel last weekend were cancelled. Odermatt is currently first in the standings with 425 points, ahead of Vincent Kriechmayr (AUT/Head, 267) in second and Stefan Babinsky (AUT/Head, 243) in third.
- Only two athletes had managed to claim four consecutive Super G Crystal Globes before Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli): Pirmin Zurbriggen (SUI, 1986/87–1989/90) and Hermann Maier (AUT, 1997/98–2000/01).
- Vincent Kriechmayr (AUT/Head, 267) can guarantee himself the runner-up spot in the season-long standings by finishing first or second. Kriechmayr has finished 2nd four times in the Super G globe race, from 2017/18 to 2019/20 and again in 2023/24. He also won the Super G Crystal Globe in 2020/21 and has finished in the top three in the last eight seasons prior to the current campaign.

- The other active skiers to win the Super G Crystal Globe are Dominik Paris (ITA/Nordica; 2018/19) and Aleksander Aamodt Kilde (NOR/Atomic; 2015/16 and 2021/22).
- If an Austrian athlete wins in Kvitfjell, it will be team Austria's 90th World Cup Super G win. Austria comfortably leads the list of the nations with the most Super G wins, 2nd-placed Switzerland only has 54.
- Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) can stretch his record streak of men's top 10 World Cup Super G finishes. The Swiss skier has finished inside the top 10 in his last 30 World Cup Super G races dating back to the race in Courchevel Meribel (FRA) in March 2022. In that time he has claimed 13 wins and 21 podium finishes.
- Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) has finished inside the top 5 in each of the last 10 World Cup Super G races. It's his second longest career streak. Odermatt holds the all-time longest streak of 19 consecutive World Cup Super G top-5 finishes. If Odermatt manages a top-5 finish in Kvitfjell, he will hold two all-time longest streaks of consecutive World Cup Super G top-5 finishes.
- A podium finish for Vincent Kriechmayr (AUT/Head) would see him claim outright 5th place on the all-time World Cup Super G men's podiums list. Currently, Kriechmayr has 24 World Cup Super G podiums, level with Stephan Eberharter (AUT) and Aleksander Aamodt Kilde (NOR/Atomic).
- If Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) wins in Kvitfjell, it will be his 18th career World Cup Super G victory, which would see him take outright fourth place on the all-time list of World Cup Super G wins, men and women. Currently he is equal with Aksel Lund Svindal (NOR) and Renate Götschl (AUT). Lindsey Vonn (USA, Head) currently leads this list with 28 Super G victories.
- A single win for Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) during the World Cup would see him take the third place on his own the men's all-time World Cup winners list across all disciplines. Odermatt now has 54 World Cup wins, equal with Hermann Maier (AUT) and 32 behind Ingemar Stenmark (SWE) who leads the men's field with 86 wins.
- Marco Odermatt (SUI/Stöckli) has the opportunity in Kvitfjell to stretch his record streak of men's point-scoring World Cup Super G races. The Swiss athlete has been scoring points in his last 48 World Cup Super G races dating back to the race in Lake Louise (CAN) in December 2019.
- A top-three finish for Franjo von Allmen (SUI/Head) would be his fourth World Cup Super G podium in a row. This is already a career-best streak for him.
- Stefan Babinsky (AUT/Head) could score his third consecutive World Cup Super G podium finish in Kvitfjell. Before finishing second in Wengen in January this year Babinsky had never stepped on a podium in his previous 43 World Cup Super G starts. He is currently enjoying his best season to date, sitting third in the Super-G standings, having previously recorded his best discipline finish in 2022/23 when he placed 10th overall.

- A win for Raphael Haaser (AUT/Atomic) would be his first World Cup success in his 101st start. The 2025 Super G World Championship silver medallist has seven World Cup podiums, all in Super G. He currently sits 4th in the Super-G standings, just 2 points behind Stefan Babinsky (AUT/head) in 3rd. The battle for third place is extremely tight, with Giovanni Franzoni (ITA/Rossignol) in 5th, just 3 points behind Babinsky and 1 behind Haaser. Franjo von Allmen (SUI/Head), currently 6th with 229 pts and Stefan Rogentin currently 7th with 200 pts, also remain in contention for a top-three finish in the discipline standings.
- A top-10 finish for Stefan Rogentin (Fischer) would be his 22nd, which will see him take outright sixth place on the list of most Swiss men's top-10 World Cup Super G finishes. Now he's equal with Carlo Janka. Didier Cuche tops that list with 57 top-10 finishes.
- A top-10 finish for Mattia Casse (Rossignol) would be his 21st, which would see him join Peter Runggaldier in fourth place on the list of the most Italian men's top-10 World Cup Super G finishes. Dominik Paris (ITA/Nordica) tops that list with 41 top-10 finishes.
- Dominik Paris (ITA/Nordica) will make his 104th World Cup Super G start in Kvitfjell to join Adrien Theaux (FRA/Salomon) in second place on the list of the most men's Super G starts. Paris claimed 5 wins, 17 podiums and 41 top-10 finishes in his previous 103 starts. Christof Innerhofer (ITA/Rossignol) is the all-time men's leader with 114 World Cup Super G starts heading into this weekend.
- Team Canada has 99 men's World Cup Super G top-10 finishes. If a Canadian skier finishes in the top ten, Canada will become the eighth nation to reach 100.
