

- The Coop FIS Cross-Country World Cup season has three events remaining, with the next stop in Drammen, Norway. Drammen has hosted individual sprint events 19 times since making its debut on the World Cup calendar in the 2002/03 season.
- Sweden have won 11 individual Women's World Cup events this season, with six different athletes, including six of the last eight individual races. Jonna Sundling (SWE) now leads the field with four individual wins, while Jessie Diggins (USA) has won three individual races.
- Sweden have placed at least one athlete on the podium in 19 out of the 22 individual World Cup races held so far.
- Sweden placed at least two athletes on the podium in 10 out of the 22 individual World Cup races held so far, including a podium clean sweep in the Sprint Classic in Trondheim, Norway.
- Jessie Diggins (USA) is the only athlete who has won two consecutive World Cup races this season, the 20km Pursuit Classic and the Tour-debuting 5km Heat Mass Start Free in Toblach, Italy, during the Tour de Ski.
- Jonna Sundling (SWE) won the Sprint Free in Lahti, Finland, last weekend, with Olympic champion Linn Svahn (SWE) in second place and Coletta Rydzek (GER) third. Sundling became the only woman athlete to win four World Cup races this season.
- Frida Karlsson (SWE) won the 10km Interval Start Classic in Lahti, Finland, last weekend, with Olympic Sprint champion Linn Svahn (SWE) in second place and Jessie Diggins (USA) third. All three athletes on the podium are Olympic champions, Karlsson and Svahn in 2026, Diggins in 2018. Dariya Nepryaeva (FIS) came fourth to achieve the best result of her World Cup career.
- In the 2023/24 edition of the World Cup held in Drammen, hometown skier Kristine Stavaas Skistad (NOR) won the Sprint Classic race, ahead of Jonna Sundling (SWE) and Tiril Udnes Weng (NOR). This was the second ever World Cup win for Skistad, who now has 13 individual World Cup wins, all in Sprint. Drammen was not in the World Cup calendar for the 2024/25 season.
- Jessie Diggins (USA), who will retire from the sport after the final stage in Lake Placid, United States, is the only active athlete with more than 20 individual World Cup victories. The Minnesotan star has 31 individual World Cup wins.

- Jessie Diggins (USA) has won three Overall World Cup titles, including two in the past two seasons. She is leading the Overall standings this season. If she wins a third consecutive Crystal Globe this season, and her fourth in total, she would be behind only Elena Vaelbe Trubitsina (RUS), who won five titles between 1988/89 and 1996/97.
- Jessie Diggins (USA) won her third Overall Tour de Ski title this season. Only Justyna Kowalczyk (POL) and Therese Johaug (NOR), with four Overall Tour de Ski trophies each, have won the competition more often.
- Sweden dominated the women's events at the Milano Cortina 2026 Olympic Winter Games, winning five gold medals out of six, including a podium clean sweep in the Sprint Classic. Frida Karlsson (SWE) was the most successful athlete, with two individual gold medals plus a silver medal in the relay. Ebba Andersson (SWE) won one gold and three silver medals, while Jonna Sundling (SWE) won one gold and two silver medals.
- At Milano Cortina 2026, Ebba Andersson (SWE) became the first Olympic Women's 50km Mass Start champion. It was Andersson's first Olympic gold medal, adding to her four Games silvers and a bronze.
