Precisions Applicable to Freestyle Aerials Inter-Continental Cup Final

1. General

The FIS Inter-Continental Cup Final will be conducted under the rules and regulations of the International Ski and Snowboard Federation (ICR and CoC: Section A) and the respective Cup Series (Section B).

1.1 Organisation

1.1.1 Jury

For Inter-Continental Cup Final Competition, the composition of the Jury shall follow the ICR (Rule 2007).

2. Qualification

Qualification Standards

The qualification standards and quotas will be established before each season, after approval of the FIS Snowboard / Freestyle / Freeski Committee. They cannot be modified during the season.

2.1 Quota

See regulations in each section.

2.2 Applications for Entry

2.2.1 Entry Deadlines

The deadline for receipt of entries by the Organiser shall be thirty days (40) for Entry by Number and fourteen days (10) for Entry by Name before the first official training day for the Event to which entry is thought. This deadline may, at the Organiser's discretion, be later but not earlier, provided that this change has been announced in the official Invitation to the competition. (See ICR 215).

2.2.2 ICoC Aerials Final entries shall be submitted using the FIS Online System (See ICoC Rules, ICoC 1.4).

2.3 Titles

The following ICoC Title will be awarded:

- AE

3. Calendar and Planning

The FIS Inter-Continental Cup Final is organised in season 2027 as a Pilot Project.

3.1 Snow Control

If there is not enough snow on the course(s) or sites selected for the competition, the Organiser must cancel the competition(s) 10 days before the first Team Captains' Meeting.

In special cases, an expert can be nominated by FIS as a snow controller.

3.2 Substitution of a Competition

3.2.1 Cancellation due to "Force Majeure"

If a competition has to be cancelled due to "force majeure", a replacement competition in the same event may be organised in another location. Such a change has to be approved by FIS. A replacement competition may never interfere with the organisation of another competition which is already scheduled in the respective FIS Continental Cup Calendar.

3.2.2 Replacement

Any replacement Competition must be announced with the following periods of notice (prior to the first training or competition day):

- for Inter-Continental Cup Final 10 days

3.2.2.1 Notices for any replacement Competition should contain all necessary information (refer to Rules 213) and be posted on the FIS Website

3.2.3 In another Country

In case a replacement competition must be moved to another country, the new Organiser (National Association) is entitled to the additional host participation quota.

4. Invitations and Programme

The invitation and provisional programme shall be published and circulated at least 3 months in advance of the competition. The OC shall inform the FIS Office if due to the weather conditions or lack of snow, the programme must be changed.

5. Awards and Ceremonies

The OC shall provide appropriate awards for the first, second, and third place finishers in each event.

The awards ceremony for each Event shall be conducted either immediately following each competition or at a prearranged awards function.

Television

Any television other than immediate local TV coverage or news coverage must be co-ordinated with the host National Ski Association.

Section B

Precisions Specific to Intercontinental Cup Final (ICoC)

ICoC 1 Common Rules

ICoC 1.1 FIS Officials

At each competition there will be the following FIS Officials:

- FIS Continental Cup Coordinator
- FIS Technical Delegate
- FIS Head Judge / Referee
- FIS Judges (5 for AE)

ICoC 1.1.1 FIS Continental Cup Coordinator

The FIS Continental Cup Coordinator will act, in conjunction with the Technical Delegate and the OC, in a supervisory capacity as an additional FIS Technical Expert overseeing the technical preparations, safety and as an adviser to the OC.

ICoC 1.1.2 Expenses for the FIS Technical Advisor/Coordinator and FIS Officials

FIS Technical Official General Rules, paragraph 3.

ICoC 1.2 Transport, Passes and Priority

The OC shall provide all team staff members and officials priority on lifts serving competition runs during official training and competition days. Reserved parking shall also be made available close to the competition area.

ICoC 1.3 Priority

During training and competition, an effort should be made to give priority to the competitors, coaches and officials on the appropriate ski lifts if necessary.

ICoC 1.4 Entry Deadline ICoC

ICoC 1.4.1 Provisional Entries – Days before the Competition

Each National Association must inform the Organisers about the expected total number of team members (Names, FIS Codes, Photo and Gender), and team officials with arrival and departure dates and rooming needs (competitors, coaches, accompanying persons and service personnel). This needs to be done using the FIS Online System and respecting the deadlines fixed and announced by the OC, 40 days before the first competition day.

ICoC 1.4.2 Confirmation of Final Entries with Arrival and Departure

Not later than 10 days before the competition day for AE the NSA must inform the OC of its final entries (Names, FIS Code and Gender) with their arrival and departure dates. The NSA must also inform the OC about the arrival and departure dates of the team officials.

Adjustments to final competitor entries and rooming needs can be done up until the entry deadline (10 days before the competition day). The same can be done for Team Officials.

Any changes in entries or rooming will be confirmed by email from the Online Entry System to the Organiser and Team.

ICoC 1.5 Accommodation

It is recommended that the OC provides accommodation through its Tourist Office, in different categories at a reasonable price level each.

ICoC 1.5.1 Duration of Accommodation

Lodging and food must be guaranteed from the night before the first official training/competition day to (and including) the morning after the last competition day.

ICoC 1.5.2 Food and Beverages

Food must be healthy and plentiful and must correspond to the needs of highly competitive athletes.

ICoC 1.5.3 Mealtimes

The hotel must adapt itself to the needs of the schedule, which depend on the training and competition programme. In most cases the breakfast is to be served very early in the morning. The Organiser should inform the hotel management of the agreement with regard to accommodation and food and of the daily programme, including any changes.

ICoC 1.6 Ski Rooms

The Organisers are responsible for making adequate ski preparation and storage facilities available to all Nations. They must be heated, secure and well ventilated. This responsibility is met by provision of facilities per Nation.

ICoC 2 Aerials Section

ICoC 2.1 Fees and Team Ratio

ICoC 2.1.1 Entry Fees competitors

Entry Fees may be charged to a maximum of CHF 100 per competitor per event and CHF 50 per competitor per official training day.

ICoC 2.1.2 Team Officials Ratio to Team Size

1-3 competitors	3 team officials
4-8 competitors	5 team officials
9 or more	6 team officials

The OC shall provide to all staff members and team officials free lift tickets.

ICoC 2.2 Official Training

The organisers must provide a minimum of 2 days of official training. Minimum training time per day is 2 hours.

ICoC 2.2.1 Training for ICoC competitions should follow the rules in the ICR 4206.

ICoC 2.2.2 On the first day of official training, the training blocks should be divided into two equal blocks. Both blocks must include an inspection period.

ICoC 2.3 FIS Freestyle Inter-Continental Cup Final

ICoC 2.3.1 Competitions to be Held
Aerials and Mixed Team Aerials ought to be held at the FIS Freestyle Inter-Continental Cup Final.

ICoC 2.3.2 Invitations to Inter-Continental Cup Finals
Invitations for the FIS Freestyle Ski Inter-Continental Cup Final are primarily based on the FIS Freestyle Ski Continentals Cup standings. The following athletes are invited:

- The male and female top 10 athletes of the Aerials rankings from each Continental Cup series.
- If one or more of the top 10 athletes declines the invitation, the place may be offered to the 11th-ranked athlete, then the 12th, 13th, and so on.
- Two athletes per gender in Aerials from the host nation.

ICoC 2.3.4 FIS Freestyle Ski World Inter-Continental Cup Final Eligibility Formula

Event	EC M/W	NAC M/W	AC M/W	SAC M/W	ANC M/W	Host M/W
AE	10/10	10/10	10/10	10/10	10/10	2/2

ICoC 2.3.5 No minimum FIS points requirements.

ICoC 2.4 Prize Money

Organisers are encouraged to provide prize money for the individual Aerial competitions at the FIS Inter-Continental Cup Final. Prize money is not awarded for the Mixed Aerial Team event

Where prize money is provided, the following amounts are recommended

1st place = 1000€
2nd place = 600€
3rd place = 400€

Organisers may provide prize money in excess of the recommended amounts. Where additional prize money is provided, the Organising Committee (OC) may determine the distribution of any amount exceeding the recommended amounts specified above.

Prize money shall be paid to athletes at the conclusion of each competition day and may be subject to applicable local taxes or withholding requirements. The OC shall provide competitors with relevant information regarding any such requirements in the country where the competition is held.

ICoC 2.5 Start List and Bibs Assignments

ICoC 2.5.1 Procedures for forming the Start Lists for Aerials and Aerials Team Events shall be as defined in the ICR.

ICoC 2.5.2 In any Event for which the formation of the Start List follows 3.6.1 above, if the competition is interrupted and cannot continue, the Qualification result shall stand as the Final Result.

ICoC 2.5.3 Assignment of Bibs for the top 25 Competitors
Bibs 1 to 25 will be assigned in order of the competitors' ranks on the latest FIS Points list for the Event. Bibs 26 onwards will be randomly assigned.

ICoC 2.6 Formats

See ICR 4104.

ICoC 2.7 FIS Freestyle Ski World Cup 2028 Quota

The top three athletes at the Inter-Continental Cup Final 2027 will be awarded a personal quota spot for the FIS Freestyle Ski World Cup 2028.
