

Facts & Figures Lahti (FIN)

- Johannes Hoesflot Klaebo (NOR) could claim his 97th and 98th individual World Cup victory in Lahti as he has the milestone 100th within reach next season.
- Klaebo and Jessie Diggins (USA) have already secured the Men's and Women's Crystal Globes. With two individual events left of the season, however, the game is still on for the remaining Overall podium positions. U23 World Cup leader Edvin Anger (SWE) holds the Men's Overall second place, 160 points before No.3 Harald Oestberg Amundsen (NOR) and 228 before No.4 Erik Valnes (NOR).
- In the Women's Overall Standings, Victoria Carl (GER) is in second place on 1,659 points, 130 more than No.3 Kerttu Niskanen (FIN) and 144 more than No.4 Astrid Oeyre Slind (NOR).
- Last time it was a 50 km in Lahti was in 1985, this will be the first time as a Women's event at an international competition.