

Audi FIS Alpine Ski World Cup 2025/26 – Women’s Giant Slalom Spindleruv Mlyn stat sheet

Previous GS race (Kronplatz) stats

- Julia Scheib (AUT/Rossignol) secured Austria’s 400th women’s World Cup win with her victory in the Giant Slalom in Kronplatz four days ago. Scheib won by 0.37s ahead of Camille Rast (SUI/Head), with Sara Hector (SWE/Head) in 3rd, to secure her fourth consecutive GS podium. The last Austrian woman to make four consecutive GS podiums was Anna Veith (AUT) in 2014/15. In seven previous GS races in Kronplatz, Scheib had not finished higher than 9th (2023/24).
- Julia Scheib’s (AUT/Rossignol) win in Kronplatz was her sixth podium in the seven GS races held so far this season – the next best this season is Alice Robinson (NZL/Salomon) on three GS podiums so far in 2025/26. The last Austrian woman before Scheib to make at least six GS podiums in a single season was Michaela Dorfmeister (AUT) who made seven in 1999/00. Tina Maze (SLO) holds the record for most women’s GS podiums in a single season with nine in 2012/13.
- Julia Scheib’s (AUT/Rossignol) win in Kronplatz was her seventh podium in 51 GS starts since her World Cup debut, also in Kronplatz, in 2017/18. Scheib required 2469 days from her debut to make her first individual podium, a 3rd in GS in Soelden in 2024/25, then needed just 88 days from the start of this season to add another six GS podiums.
- Camille Rast’s (SUI/Head) 2nd in Kronplatz was her third consecutive Giant Slalom podium, equalling her best run of consecutive podiums in a single discipline (achieved this season in Slalom). Lara Gut-Behrami (SUI/Head) was the last Swiss woman before Rast to make three consecutive GS podiums, in 2023/24. Rast took 2955 days to make her first individual podium (3rd in Slalom in Gurgl in 2024/25), then needed 423 days to add her next 10 podiums (4 GS, 6 SL).
- Sara Hector’s (SWE/Head) 3rd in Kronplatz was her third podium in her past four Giant Slalom races, and saw her equal Sonja Nef (SUI) and Lise-Marie Morerod (SUI) on 24 GS podiums, which is equal-14th all-time for women. It was also Sweden’s 73rd women’s GS podium, which saw Sweden surpass Federal Republic of Germany (72) into outright 7th place for women’s GS podiums.
- Mikaela Shiffrin’s (USA/Atomic) 4th in Kronplatz marked her 12th Giant Slalom race without a podium, which is her second-longest streak without a podium within a single discipline. Her longest was her first 15 GS races from 2010/11 to 2013/14.
- Maryna Gasienica-Daniel’s (POL/Atomic) 5th in Kronplatz matched her best-ever World Cup result, achieved in Giant Slalom in Semmering this season.
- Federica Brignone’s (ITA/Rossignol) 6th in Kronplatz marked her return from injury, and was her first World Cup race in 301 days since a 2nd in Giant Slalom in Sun Valley in 2024/25.

Spindleruv Mlyn stats

- Spindleruv Mlyn has hosted four women’s Giant Slalom races - 2005/06, 2007/08, 2010/11 and most recently in 2018/19. The venue also hosted a Slalom race the day after GS in each of those four seasons, followed by two SL races only in 2022/23.

- The first women's Giant Slalom race in Spindleruv Mlyn in 2005/06 was won by Janica Kostelic (CRO), who would go on to win Super G silver and Combined gold at the 2006 Olympic Winter Games just over two months later. Kostelic won by 0.08s, which remains the smallest winning margin for women's GS in Spindleruv Mlyn. Denise Karbon (ITA) won the next in 2007/08 and remains the oldest women's GS winner in Spindleruv Mlyn at age 27 years and 142 days.
- The third women's GS in 2010/11 was won by 1.26s by 2010 women's Olympic GS champion, Viktoria Rebensburg (GER), at age 21 years and 158 days. This remains both the biggest winning margin and youngest winner for women's GS in Spindleruv Mlyn. The fourth women's GS in Spindleruv Mlyn was won by Petra Vlhova (SVK) in 2018/19, less than a month after she won GS gold at the 2019 World Championships.
- Of the 10 women to have made a Giant Slalom podium in Spindleruv Mlyn, Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic), Petra Vlhova (SVK/Rossignol) and Lindsey Vonn (USA/Head) are the only active skiers. Vonn finished 3rd in 2010/11, Shiffrin finished 3rd in 2018/19 and Vlhova won in 2018/19. Only two women – Viktoria Rebensburg (GER) and Denise Karbon (ITA) – have reached the podium more than once (twice each) in Spindleruv Mlyn. Shiffrin is the only one of the three who will ski this weekend.
- Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) and Petra Vlhova (SVK/Rossignol) are the only active skiers among the four women to have made a Giant Slalom and Slalom podium across consecutive days in Spindleruv Mlyn, having won the SL in 2018/19 a day after finishing 3rd in GS. The other two are Janica Kostelic (CRO) and Marlies Schild (AUT). No woman has yet won a GS and SL race in Spindleruv Mlyn.
- A win for Julia Scheib (AUT/Rossignol) would see her become the 40th woman (and ninth Austrian woman) to reach five Giant Slalom wins. If Scheib makes the podium, she will move from equal-12th on the all-time list of Austrian women's GS podiums (7) - alongside Gertrude Gabl (AUT) – to outright 12th.
- If Camille Rast (SUI/Head) makes the podium it will be her fourth Giant Slalom podium in consecutive GS races, which will be her longest streak of podiums in consecutive races within a single discipline. Her current best is three, achieved in Slalom this season. A win for Rast would see her become the 63rd skier to win more than one women's GS race.
- If Sara Hector (SWE/Head) makes the podium, she will move from equal-14th on the all-time list for women's Giant Slalom podiums (24) – alongside Sonja Nef (SUI) and Lise-Marie Morerod (SUI) - to outright 14th on 25. A win for Hector would be her eighth GS win and see her move to equal-19th alongside Michaela Dorfmeister (AUT). Hector would become just the fourth active skier in the current top 20 for women's GS wins, alongside Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) on 22 in first, Federica Brignone (ITA/Rossignol) on 17 in third, and Lara Gut-Behrami (SUI/Head) on 10, in equal-15th.
- If Alice Robinson (NZL/Salomon) makes the podium, she will move from equal-19th on the all-time list for women's Giant Slalom podiums (20) – alongside Marta Bassino (ITA/Head), Nicole Hosp (AUT), Tanja Poutiainen (FIN) and Erika Hess (SUI) - to equal-18th alongside Kathrin Zettel (AUT).
- A win for Alice Robinson (NZL/Salomon) would see her move from six GS wins, which is equal-24th for women alongside 11 other skiers, of which only one other is active - Marta Bassino – to equal-22nd alongside Sara Hector (SWE/Head) and Kathrin Zettel (AUT).

- Italy is on 99 women's and men's Giant Slalom wins. The next win will see Italy become the third nation after Austria (211) and Switzerland (190) to reach 100 GS wins.
- Sara Hector (SWE/Head) and Ana Bucik Jogan (SLO/Salomon) are the only two skiers to have taken part in all 60 women's Giant Slalom races since the 2019/20 season. They are followed by three skiers on 57 GS starts in that time - Mina Fuerst Holtmann (NOR/Atomic), Alice Robinson (NZL/Salomon) and Thea Louise Stjernesund (NOR/Rossignol).
- Camille Rast (SUI/Head) will make her 60th Giant Slalom and 120th start across all disciplines in Spindleruv Mlyn, while Sara Hector (SWE/Head) will make her 120th GS start and Lena Duerr (GER/Head) her 75th GS start.
Sofia Goggia (ITA/Atomic) will make her 220th start across all disciplines, and Ricarda Haaser (AUT/Salomon) her 190th across all disciplines.
