

To the
- National Ski Associations

FIS Mogul Course Design and Build Clinic Hintertux Glacier, AUT

Proctor:

Chris “Seedog” Seemann USA, USA MO/DM/AE - Technical Advisor
22 + years. Multiple years building FIS World Cup Courses in North America. Deer Valley Utah, USA and Waterville Valley New Hampshire being voted many times as the best venue of the season!

Assistant Proctor/ Piston Assist:

Ales Span Slovenia, FIS Technical Delegate with many courses built for World Cup, World Championships, Europa Cup and FIS events

For World Cup, Continental Cup, FIS domestic competition organisers, course builders, and Snowcat operators.

Clinic objectives are to combine knowledge from our international experts and clinic attendees how to make and improve World Class FIS mogul training and competition venues.

- Venue layout
- Course profile
- Course safety
- Construction planning
- Pitch of mogul separation
- Jump construction
- Snowcat operator and builders' communication
- Competitors' safety
- Traffic flow
- Course maintenance
- Landing maintenance and security

Schedule:

4th October – 10th October 2025

| | | |
|------------|-----------------------|---|
| 04.10.2025 | Munich Airport GER | Arrival to Munich Airport and transfer by shuttle to Kirchler Badhotel, Hintertux Austria |
| 05.10.2025 | Hintertux AUT | Glacier Work - rough course profile work - discuss overall profile goals - FIS Course |
| 06.10.2025 | Hintertux AUT | Glacier Work - final course profile, layout of mogul cut - discuss course alignment, mogul distances and course width options - FIS course |
| 07.10.2025 | Hintertux AUT | Glacier Work - mogul cut am / course work pm - discuss / test different mogul cutting options - FIS course |
| 08.10.2025 | Hintertux AUT | Glacier Work - push pro jumps with cat am rough shape jumps pm - discuss jump placements and rough shape designs. Chop landings, discuss chop lengths and exit bump "blending" - FIS course |
| 09.10.2025 | Hintertux AUT | Glacier Work - final shape jumps - discuss jump shape philosophy and different maintenance plans. Add water to all jumps PM. Chop Landings - FIS course |
| 10.10.2025 | Munich Airport GER | Departure to Munich by shuttle from Kirchler Badhotel, Hintertux Austria |

Pricing: 1,350.00 Euro

6 days accommodation in Badhotel including half board

Shuttle Service Roundtrip MUC-Hintertux-MUC including 1 ski luggage, pick-up with nametag and insurance in case of cancellations

The following will be provided during the Mogul Design/ Build clinic

- Room with half-board (single room will have a surcharge)
- Clinic proctor and assistant proctor
- Classroom presentations
- On hill instructions
- Work with experience piston operator
- Lift access
- Shuttle from Munich International airport to Kirchler Badhotel in Hintertux, return

Deadline:

Please have commitments to the FIS office by 18th September 2025.