

FACTS & FIGURES – Viessmann Nordic Combined World Cup – Schonach

MEN

- Jarl Magnus Riiber (NOR) has won his last five competitions in Schonach, and never finished off the podium in the eight events he has entered there since 2018
- The defending overall champion has won three of the seven men's competitions so far this season to extend his own record to 76 individual World Cup victories
- Julian Schmid (GER) lies 50 points behind Riiber in the men's standings after three runners-up places, two more podiums and a lowest finish of sixth
- Vinzenz Geiger (GER) has matched Riiber's record of three wins, a second and a third so far this season but still trails the five-time champion by 67 points

WOMEN

- Ida Marie Hagen (NOR) has won the first four women's competitions of the season to make it eight World Cup victories in a row going back to last year
- The defending champion has won 13 of her last 16 individual World Cup events since her debut win in December 2023, finishing second in the other three
- Nathalie Armbruster (GER), 19, is Hagen's closest challenger after two second places this season. She had podium finishes in Schonach in 2023 and 2024
- Just as in the men's World Cup, where Germany have three competitors in the top six, Germany also lead the Nations Cup in the women's standings (1051 to Norway's 957), with Maria Gerboth and Jenny Nowak also in the individual top 10
