

FACTS & FIGURES – Men's Giant Slalom in Sölden

- Marco Odermatt (SUI) won both the past two men's GS World Cup races in Sölden, in 2022 and 2021 (there was no race in 2023).
- Odermatt claimed the first nine GS races of last season and was leading the 10th and final race at the World Cup Finals in Saalbach (AUT) before skiing out in run two.
- Odermatt is chasing a fourth successive GS Globe and a fourth successive overall season title.
- Odermatt has won 21/28 World Cup GS races in the past three seasons.
- Loic Meillard (SUI) won the only World Cup GS race Odermatt did not last season, the second of his career.
- Filip Zubcic (CRO) had two podium finishes last season, his first since 2021.
- Lucas Braathen (BRA) became the youngest ever men's winner in Sölden when he triumphed in 2020, aged 20. He beat Odermatt that day by 0.05 seconds.
- Marcel Hirscher (NED) could become the oldest men's GS winner in Sölden if he repeats his 2014 success on Sunday. Hirscher, 35, would eclipse Didier Cuche (SUI) by a matter of months.
- Hirscher has 31 GS World Cup wins to his name and six GS Crystal Globes (2012 and 2015-2019).
- Henrik Kristoffersen (NOR) who won the GS Globe in 2020 and the GS World Championship gold medal in 2019, has a best finish of third in Sölden in 2022.