- Sofia Goggia (ITA/Atomic) won the second Super G race this season, in Val d'Isere, by 0.15s ahead of Alice Robinson (NZL/Salomon), with Lindsey Vonn (USA/Head) in third. It was Goggia's first victory since a Downhill win in Cortina d'Ampezzo in 2024/25, ending a 22-race winless streak. This was Goggia's longest winless streak since her World Cup debut in 2011 when she contested 60 races before her first win (DH in Jeongseon) in 2016/17. Her previous longest winless streak was 16.
- Sofia Goggia's (ITA/Atomic) win in Val d'Isere was her eighth Super G win among 21 podiums (38% win-to-podium rate) in 63 SG starts (33% podium-to-race rate), compared to her Downhill record of 19 wins among 38 podiums (50% win-to-podium rate) in 69 starts (55% podium-to-race rate). Goggia's win sees her join Hilde Gerg (GER) in equal-eighth place for all-time women's SG wins (8). Goggia also joins Tina Weirather (LIE) in equal-ninth for all-time women's SG podiums (21).
- Alice Robinson's (NZL/Salomon) 2nd in Val d'Isere was her second Super G podium (in 41 SG starts). Robinson won the first SG race this season in St. Moritz to become the first women's or men's skier from a non-European/North American nation to win a World Cup race in more than one of the four individual events (SL, GS, DH, SG). After her 2nd in Val d'Isere, Robinson joins Ilka Stuhec (SLO/Kaestle) and Mateja Svet (SLO) on 22 World Cup podiums, which is equal-66th all-time for women.

- Elena Curtoni's (ITA/Head) 4th in Val d'Isere was the third time she has finished 4th in the 14 Super G races she has contested since making her last SG podium, a 2nd in Kvitfjell in 2022/23.
- Camille Cerutti's (FRA/Atomic) 5th in Val d'Isere was her first top 10 World Cup result. She has made 72 World Cup starts in all disciplines.
- Ilka Stuhec's (SLO/Kaestle) 7th in Val d'Isere was her best Super G result in the 43 SG races she started since winning the SG in Val Gardena-Groeden in 2018/19.
- Ariane Raedler's (AUT/Head) 8th in Val d'Isere was her fifth top 10 finish in the 10 Super G races she has contested since making her second SG podium last season (3rd in Beaver Creek). Raedler's first SG podium (3rd) came in Zauchensee in 2021/22.
- Mirjam Puchner (AUT/Atomic) and Kira Weidle-Winkelmann (GER/Rossignol) are the only two skiers to have taken part in all 43 Super G races from 2020/21 to Val d'Isere this season.

Zauchensee stats

- Zauchensee has hosted 10 women's World Cup Super G races, most recently in 2023/24 when two SG races were held. The first SG in Zauchensee in 1990/91 was won by Petra Kronberger (AUT), a dual gold medallist at the 1992 Olympic Winter Games.

- Lara Gut-Behrami (SUI/Head) is the only skier to have won more than one Super G race in Zauchensee (2010/11 and the second race in 2023/24). The first made Gut-Behrami the youngest SG winner in Zauchensee at age 19, and the second the oldest at age 32. Skiers who are older than Gut-Behrami this weekend and could break her record include Lindsey Vonn (USA/Head), Sofia Goggia (ITA/Atomic), Cornelia Huetter (AUT/Head) and others.
- Active skiers with a single Super G win in Zauchensee are Cornelia Huetter (AUT/Head) in 2023/24, Federica Brignone (ITA/Rossignol) in 2021/22, and Lindsey Vonn (USA/Head) in 2015/16.
- Cornelia Huetter (AUT/Head) is the most recent Austrian winner in Zauchensee (2023/24), following Alexandra Meissnitzer (2004/05), Michaela Dorfmeister (2001/02), Renate Goetschl (1999/00) and Petra Kronberger (1990/91). Austria boasts five of the ten women's SG winners in Zauchensee.
- For Super G podiums in Zauchensee, Lara Gut-Behrami (SUI/Head) has the most with four, followed by Cornelia Huetter (AUT/Head) on three (1st in 2023/24, 2nd in 2023/24, 3rd in 2015/16). Lindsey Vonn (USA/Head) and Alexandra Meissnitzer (AUT) have two each. Vonn's win in 2015/16 followed a 2nd in 2010/11.
- If Sofia Goggia's (ITA/Atomic) wins she will move from equal-eighth for women's Super G wins alongside Hilde Gerg (GER) to outright eighth. Goggia's next SG podium will see her move from equal-ninth (21) for women with Tina Weirather (LIE) to equal-eighth (22) with Anna Veith (AUT).
- Cornelia Huetter (AUT/Head) and Mikaela Shiffrin (USA/Atomic) both have five Super G wins, which is equal-13th for women. A win for Huetter will see her move to equal-12th alongside Marina Kiehl (FRG). Huetter is one of three skiers, alongside Lara Gut-Behrami (SUI/Head) and Federica Brignone (ITA/Rossignol) to have won at least one Super G in each of the past four seasons.
- Corinne Suter (SUI/Head) could make her return from injury in Zauchensee. Her last Super G race came in March in Sun Valley, where she finished 15th. Suter has nine SG podiums, needing one more to become the 25th woman (and third from Switzerland) to reach 10.
- Kajsa Vickhoff Lie (NOR/ Head) will make her 50th Super G start in Zauchensee. Lie is on five World Cup SG podiums, which is second best for Norway women behind Ragnhild Mowinckel (NOR) on seven. Lie is yet to win an SG race, with five SG podiums including 2nd in Zauchensee in 2023/24.
- Joana Haehlen (SUI/Atomic) will make her 160th World Cup start across all events in Zauchensee, while Stephanie Brunner (AUT/Head) will make her 150th. For only Super G starts, Jacqueline Wiles (USA/Rossignol) will make her 60th while three skiers will make their 40th – Laura Pirovano (ITA/Head), Jasmina Suter (SUI/Stoeckl) and Valerie Grenier (CAN/Rossignol).
- Canada and Sweden both have 11 women's and men's Super G wins, which is equal ninth. The next nation to win will move to outright ninth.
- Norway has 17 women's Super G podiums, which is 12th highest. The next SG podium will see Norway match Canada with 18 in equal-11th position.
- Italy has 98 women's Super G podiums, which is fifth best. If two Italians finish on the podium in Zauchensee, Italy will become the fourth nation after Austria (237), Switzerland (123), and Germany (101) to reach 100.
