

PREVIEW MEN'S SUPER-G HINTERSTODER – Saturday 29 Feb 2020

Aleksander Aamodt Kilde

- Aleksander Aamodt Kilde is currently leading the overall and super-G standings in the World Cup. Kilde won his only crystal globe in the super-G in 2016.
- Kilde won the most recent super-G in the World Cup, in Saalbach-Hinterglemm. It was his first World Cup win of the season in any discipline.
- The last Norwegian man to win successive super-G races in the World Cup was Kjetil Jansrud in December 2016 (3).
- Kilde claimed both of his World Cup super-G wins in Austria, in Hinterstoder on 27 February 2016 and in Saalbach-Hinterglemm on 14 February 2020.
- Only Hermann Maier (9) and Aksel Lund Svindal (3) have won more men's World Cup super-G events in Austria than Kilde (2).
- Kilde is the only man to have finished in the top eight in each of the last 11 World Cup super-G events.

Matthias Mayer & Vincent Kriechmayr

- Matthias Mayer and Vincent Kriechmayr have won three World Cup super-G races each.
- This season, Mayer won the Lake Louise super-G and Kriechmayr the Val Gardena super-G.
- Austrian men could win three super-G races in a World Cup season for the first time since 2010/11, when Georg Streitberger, Michael Walchhofer and Hannes Reichelt each won once.
- The last two World Cup super-G wins by Austrians on home snow were both recorded by Mayer: in Kitzbühel on 20 January 2017 and in Saalbach-Hinterglemm on 22 February 2015.
- Only Hermann Maier (9) and Aksel Lund Svindal (3) have won more men's World Cup super-G events in Austria than Mayer (2).

Other contenders

- Kjetil Jansrud has won 13 World Cup races in the super-G, ranking him third on the all-time men's list behind Hermann Maier (24) and Aksel Lund Svindal (17).
- Jansrud is the only man to have won a super-G race in each of the last seven World Cup seasons.
- Mauro Caviezel has claimed six World Cup super-G podiums, but has yet to collect his first victory in this discipline.
- Caviezel is the only man to have finished in the top five in each of the last six super-G races in the World Cup.

- Caviezel is currently ranked second in the super-G standings. Only Pirmin Zurbriggen in 1988 and Franz Heinzer in 1991 won the super-G crystal globe without winning a super-G race that season.
- Marco Odermatt can become the first Swiss man to win multiple super-G races in a World Cup season since Beat Feuz (2) in 2011/12.
- Thomas Dreßen finished on three World Cup podiums in the super-G, three third places. He can become the third German man to win a super-G race in the World Cup, after Markus Wasmeier (6 wins) and Josef Ferstl (2).
- US male skiers have not recorded a World Cup super-G podium since Andrew Weibrecht's second place in Kitzbühel on 22 January 2016.
