Coop FIS Cross-Country World Cup / Viessmann FIS Nordic Combined World Cup 2020/2021 FIS Season Accreditation - Online Application

---

The FIS Season Accreditation is intended for people who need regular access to the Coop FIS Cross-Country World Cup or Viessmann FIS Nordic Combined World Cup for professional reasons.

Covid-19:

The holder of the season accreditation accepts all terms and conditions of the respective LOC as well as the valid rules and regulation of the government and local health authorities. A questionnaire of respective LOC needs to be filled out and provided to them latest at the arrival.

In some cases, it might also be that due to rules and regulations an additional accreditation is needed for accessing the venues. In this case, information is provided on the LOC website as well as in the event information on the FIS Website. Please visit the sides regularly and keep you updated.

Thank you very much for your understanding and contribution that all events can be held according to the rules and regulation of the respective event.

For general questions concerning the FIS Season Accreditation, please contact Sandra Spitz, FIS Technical Operations Manager Nordic, spitz@fisski.com

- Eligibility for a FIS Season Accreditation and the respective access areas can be found here
- The accreditation if granted is subject to all general terms and conditions for the FIS Season Accreditation.
- The holder of a FIS Season Accreditation benefits, on a subsidiary basis, from a collective accident insurance issued by Allianz Suisse.

ONLINE APPLICATION ► *to be processed via the FIS member section

If you or your organisation has already received login information for the past season, the same details are valid and you can proceed with the registration by entering your information in the member section.

Provided you would like to change your contact person or are new to the process, please assign a staff member to handle all accreditation requests and communication of mandatory information to all card holders. Send your request to spitz@fisski.com
