

PREVIEW MIXED TEAM NORMAL HILL OBERSTDORF – Sunday 28 Feb 2021

- The mixed team normal hill event will be held for the fifth time at the Nordic world championships. The inaugural edition was in 2013.
- The mixed team event will make its Olympic debut at the Beijing 2022 Olympic Winter Games.
- Japan won the world title in 2013, while Germany was victorious in each of the last three editions (2015, 2017 and 2019).
- In the history of the Nordic world championships, only twice a ski jumping event had the same winner in at least four consecutive editions. Finland won the world title in the men's team event in four consecutive editions (1984-1989) and Austria won the men's team event in five consecutive Nordic world championships (2005-2013).
- Besides Germany and Japan, the only two other countries to have won a world championship medal in this event are Austria (silver in 2013, 2017 and 2019) and Norway (silver in 2015, bronze in 2019).
- Germany's Carina Vogt, Katharina Althaus and Markus Eisenbichler are the ski jumpers to have won multiple gold medals in this event at the Nordic world championships (all 2 gold medals).
- Vogt (G2-S0-B1) and Japan's Sara Takanashi (G1-S0-B2), Yuki Ito (G1-S0-B2) and Taku Takeuchi (G1-S0-B2) are tied on a record three total medals in the mixed team event at the Nordic world championships.
