

PREVIEW MEN'S SUPER-G LAKE LOUISE – Sunday 28 Nov 2021

Vincent Kriechmayr

- Last season, Vincent Kriechmayr became the first Austrian man to win the super-G crystal globe since Hannes Reichelt in 2007/08.
- Kriechmayr completed the speed double at the 2021 World Championships in Cortina d'Ampezzo. He became the third male skier to achieve this after Hermann Maier (1999) and Bode Miller (2005).
- Kriechmayr finished on the podium in each of the last four super-G events in the World Cup. The last man to claim five successive World Cup podiums in super-G events was Dominik Paris: five in a row from December 2018 to December 2019.
- Kriechmayr reached the podium in the last two World Cup super-G races held in Lake Louise: second in 2018 and third in 2019.

Marco Odermatt

- Marco Odermatt finished second in last season's super-G standings. He won the final World Cup super-G race of the season, in Saalbach-Hinterglemm on 7 March.
- Odermatt can become the third Swiss man to win back-to-back super-G events in the World Cup, after Pirmin Zurbriggen (twice, in 1984 and 1990) and Paul Accola (1992).
- The most recent occasion Switzerland claimed successive World Cup wins in the super-G was in December 2011 to February 2012 (wins by Sandro Viletta, Beat Feuz and Didier Cuche).
- The only Swiss victory in a men's World Cup super-G event in Lake Louise was achieved by Tobias Grünenfelder on 28 November 2010.

Other contenders

- Matthias Mayer won the most recent World Cup super-G held in Lake Louise, on 1 December 2019. The Austrian ended a World Cup winning run of seven by Norwegian skiers in the Lake Louise super-G.
- Mayer has claimed 17 World Cup podiums in the super-G (including three wins), one shy of equalling Marc Girardelli (18) in eighth place on the men's list.
- Kjetil Jansrud (3) is one of three male skiers to have claimed multiple World Cup super-G wins in Lake Louise, alongside Aksel Lund Svindal (6) and Hermann Maier (4).
- Jansrud has won 13 World Cup super-G races, ranking him in third on the men's list behind Maier (24) and Svindal (17).
- Brodie Seger finished in fourth place in the men's super-G at the 2021 World Championships in Cortina d'Ampezzo. The most recent Canadian man to claim a World Cup super-G podium was Erik Guay, who finished third in Kvitfjell on 26 February 2017.

- Of the six Canadian super-G wins in the men's World Cup, two came in Lake Louise: John Kucera in 2006 and Manuel Osborne-Paradis in 2009.
- Ryan Cochran-Siegle won the Bormio super-G in the 2020/21 season to become the fourth United States skier to claim a win in this discipline in the men's World Cup, after Bode Miller (5, once in Lake Louise), Daron Rahlves (3) and Tommy Moe (1).
- Matthieu Bailet finished second in the final super-G of the 2020/21 World Cup season, in Saalbach-Hinterglemm on 7 March. This century, France's only men's World Cup super-G victory was achieved by Alexis Pinturault in Lenzerheide on 13 March 2014.
