

PREVIEW MEN'S TEAM SKI FLYING PLANICA – Saturday 26 Mar 2022

Slovenia

- Slovenia won the team ski flying world title in Vikersund on 13 March. Domen Prevc, Peter Prevc, Timi Zajc and Anze Lanisek were Slovenia's ski jumpers who triumphed.
- Slovenia won the team event in Zakopane (large hill) on 15 January this year. Slovenia can record multiple victories in World Cup team events for the first time since 2014/15 (2).
- Slovenia has won a total of 11 World Cup team events. Peter Prevc was a part of all those teams.
- Slovenia triumphed twice in a ski flying World Cup team event in Planica, in 2012/13 and 2014/15. Jurij Tepes, Peter Prevc and Robert Kranjec were part of both those teams.
- Peter Prevc (4) can equal Andreas Stjernen, Gregor Schlierenzauer, Johann André Forfang and Martin Koch (all 5) on a record five wins in ski flying team events in the World Cup.

Austria

- Austria (35) has won most team events in the World Cup, including three wins in four events this season (Slovenia has one win in 2021/22).
- Only twice before, Norway in 2017/18 (6) and Austria in 2010/11 (5), has a country won more than three World Cup team events in a single season.
- Austria has won five World Cup team events in ski flying, second-most behind Norway's eight. Austria's last victory in a team ski flying World Cup dates back to 17 March 2012, when it won the World Cup event in Planica.
- Austria finished fourth in the team event at the ski flying world championships.

Norway

- Norway (8) has won the most World Cup team events in ski flying, including a record five in Planica.
- Norway (27) is trailing only Austria (35) on most World Cup wins in team events.
- Norway recorded only one podium finish this season, a third place in Bischofshofen (large hill) on 9 January. It also finished third at the ski flying world championships in Vikersund.
- The last time Norway failed to win a team event in a World Cup season was in 2013/14.

Other contenders

- Germany finished runner-up at the ski flying world championships in Vikersund.
- In all team events, Germany has won 16 World Cup events. Only Austria (35) and Norway (27) have won more.
- Germany won the most recent World Cup ski flying team event, in Planica on 28 March 2021. The last country to win back-to-back ski flying team events was Norway (record run of 5) between 2016 and 2018.
- Germany's only other win in a team event in ski flying was in the first-ever World Cup team event in ski flying, in Planica on 18 March 2000.
- Japan has won four team events in the World Cup, but not since a victory in Salt Lake City on 19 January 2001.
- Japan has yet to win a ski flying team event in the World Cup. It finished on the podium three times, all in Planica (third in 2000 and 2001, second in 2021).

International Ski Federation www.fis-ski.com
Gracenote Sports on Twitter @GracenoteGold